LETTER FROM SARA, TRAVEL COORDINATOR

Members have asked me why I'm so excited and passionate about keeping people traveling. I began thinking: our doctor tells Wayne and I to keep moving—for both our minds and our bodies. Even when you don't think you can. So here are my thoughts: Life is an incredible journey, and it's never too late to explore new places.

Traveling isn't just for the young—it's for the young at heart. Travel helps, even when we experience aches and pains, because it offers numerous physical, mental, and emotional benefits. Exploring new destinations stimulates the mind, combats feelings of isolation, and fosters a sense of adventure and purpose. Travel encourages light physical activity, which can improve mobility and reduce stiffness. Meeting new people, enjoying beautiful landscapes, and eating good food can uplift the spirit, reduce stress, and improve overall well-being. Keeping your mind sharp by engaging with people from all walks of life is important. Don't let aches or pains define your limits. Create new chapters in your life story. Our travelers range in age from 50 to some in their 90s.

With that in mind, we help senior citizens create meaningful memories that far outweigh temporary discomfort. If an activity isn't right for you, we'll find a comfortable place for you to rest and wait—we promise that the center has never left anyone behind, and we never will.

Whether it's a day trip or a multi-day adventure, join the fun. Life is short—enjoy the journey. You'll be glad you went. And remember: motion is lotion.

You all mean the world to me.

Sincerely,

Sara Wax

JEREMY MEIER @ OWENS COMMUNITY COLLEGE JFK 1963 A Thousand Miles

WHEN: Tues., Nov. 25, 2025

DEPART: 12:15 PM

RETURN: 7:15 PM

COST: $ 39.00 (meal extra)

New trip sign up starts Oct. 6, 2025 @ 8:30 AM

Jeremy Meier is the Chair of Fine & Performing Arts at Owens Community College. He earned a Master of Fine Arts in Acting from The Ohio State University in 2002 and a Bachelor's degree in Theatre from Central Michigan University in 1999.

Meier has presented dynamic one-man shows on the lives of historical figures such as John F. Kennedy, Oliver Hazard Perry, John Dillinger, and Steve Jobs. This Chautauqua-style presentation will take place in the theatre at the Owens Community College Arts Center. With the shadow of nuclear war overhead, the dream of reaching the moon on the horizon, and deep unrest stirring in the fight for civil rights, John F. Kennedy stood at a crossroads in American history.

Inspired by Robert Frost's call to lead with both poetry and power, this compelling program captures JFK during the final, defining years of his presidency. After the performance, we will tour the campus art gallery, followed by dinner at Red Robin Restaurant. Dining at Red Robin is an adventure! Explore a menu featuring over 25 gourmet burgers, all served with bottomless steak fries, garlic fries, or sweet potato fries. Quench your thirst with endless soft drinks, root beer floats, Very Berry Raspberry Limeade, or Poppin' Purple Lemonade. Plus, we'll be there during Happy Hour! If burgers aren't your thing, Red Robin also offers salmon, ribs, shrimp, fajitas, fish, and much more.

Rock the Vote! There was a time when American Women couldn't do that, not until suffragists got the Nineteenth Amendment passed in 1920.

The 2024 Tony Winner for Best Book of a Musical and Best Original Score!

A century ago Suffragette women of the United States were in an ongoing battle for the right to vote. 100 years later, SUFFS, directed by Leigh Silverman and written by the most exciting new voice in theater, Shaina Taub, transfers to Broadway after an extended run at the Public, to delight audiences with its fascinating look at these unsung trailblazers. You're invited along for the same ride they took all those years ago, so grab your placard and get ready to fight for what's right.

It's the early 1910 and a group of Suffragists have taken to the street ready to transform the country and protests against the likes of the public, the president and even each other. Their names? The SUFFS! This captivating story will take you on the journey of women working against the divides—racial, generational and class—with both victories and failures right up until the Nineteenth Amendment in 1920.

It's a fight that is still far from over.
