JEREMY MEIER @ OWENS COMMUNITY COLLEGE JFK 1963 A Thousand Miles

WHEN: Tues., Nov. 25, 2025
DEPART: 12:15 PM
RETURN: 7:15 PM
COST: $ 39.00 (meal extra)

Jeremy Meier is the Chair of Fine & Performing Arts at Owens Community College. He earned a Master of Fine Arts in Acting from The Ohio State University in 2002 and a Bachelor's degree in Theatre from Central Michigan University in 1999.

Meier has presented dynamic one-man shows on the lives of historical figures such as John F. Kennedy, Oliver Hazard Perry, John Dillinger, and Steve Jobs. This Chautauqua-style presentation will take place in the theatre at the Owens Community College Arts Center. With the shadow of nuclear war overhead, the dream of reaching the moon on the horizon, and deep unrest stirring in the fight for civil rights, John F. Kennedy stood at a crossroads in American history.

Inspired by Robert Frost's call to lead with both poetry and power, this compelling program captures JFK during the final, defining years of his presidency. After the performance, we will tour the campus art gallery, followed by dinner at Red Robin Restaurant. Dining at Red Robin is an adventure! Explore a menu featuring over 25 gourmet burgers, all served with bottomless steak fries, garlic fries, or sweet potato fries. Quench your thirst with endless soft drinks, root beer floats, Very Berry Raspberry Limeade, or Poppin' Purple Lemonade. Plus, we'll be there during Happy Hour! If burgers aren't your thing, Red Robin also offers salmon, ribs, shrimp, fajitas, fish, and much more.

Rock the Vote! There was a time when American Women couldn't do that, not until suffragists got the Nineteenth Amendment passed in 1920.

The 2024 Tony Winner for Best Book of a Musical and Best Original Score!

A century ago Suffragette women of the United States were in an ongoing battle for the right to vote. 100 years later, SUFFS, directed by Leigh Silverman and written by the most exciting new voice in theater, Shaina Taub, transfers to Broadway after an extended run at the Public, to delight audiences with its fascinating look at these unsung trailblazers. You're invited along for the same ride they took all those years ago, so grab your placard and get ready to fight for what's right.

It's the early 1910 and a group of Suffragists have taken to the street ready to transform the country and protests against the likes of the public, the president and even each other. Their names? The SUFFS! This captivating story will take you on the journey of women working against the divides—racial, generational and class—with both victories and failures right up until the Nineteenth Amendment in 1920.

It's a fight that is still far from over.

In 1920, after women gained the right to vote the presence of women in Congress gradually increased and was especially noticeable by 1981. They have brought attention to gender—sensitive topics, children's rights and gender equality.

Step into a world of brilliance and beauty with Radiance and Reverie, a dazzling exhibition featuring more than 150 extraordinary jewels from the private collection of famed jewelry designer Neil Lane. Best known for his presence on the red carpet and ABC's The Bachelor, Lane has spent decades amassing one of the most important historic jewelry collections in the United States. Now, for the first time, this remarkable collection comes to light in an exhibition that celebrates jewelry as both art and cultural artifact.

Spanning nearly a century of design—from the opulence of nineteenth-century revival styles to the elegance of Hollywood's golden age—Radiance and Reverie invites visitors to see jewelry in a new light: not only as adornment, but as miniature sculptures that reflect shifting tastes, social change, and artistic innovation. Featuring iconic names such as Suzanne Belperron, Cartier, Boucheron, Castellani, Louis C. Tiffany, and Tiffany & Co., the exhibition reveals the story of modern jewelry through three distinct chapters:

- Paris: The World Stage showcases revival styles that captured imaginations at nineteenth-century world's fairs.
- New York: An American Jewelry House focuses on the legacy of Tiffany & Co. and Louis C. Tiffany and the rise of American design.
- Hollywood: Glamour traces the star-studded journey of jewels worn by legends like Mae West and Joan Crawford and revived on today's red carpets.

Historic photographs, period costume, and red-carpet footage complement the jewelry on view, offering a richly immersive experience.

Organized by the Toledo Museum of Art, Radiance and Reverie: Jewels from the Collection of Neil Lane is co-curated by Diane Wright, Senior Curator of Glass and Contemporary Craft at the Toledo Museum of Art, and Emily Stoehrer, Rita J. Kaplan and Susan B. Kaplan Senior Curator of Jewelry at the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston. A richly illustrated catalogue, copublished with Rizzoli Electa, offers new scholarship on the jewelry and designers represented, accompanied by an in-depth interview with Neil Lane.
