Dear Members,

We are starting a Member Care Contact List to help support one another when needs arise within our community. From time to time, we hear of a member who could use a little extra help, and we'd like to reach out to those who may be willing to lend a hand.

Examples of the types of assistance we might coordinate include:

- Short-term yard care following a procedure or illness
- Light housekeeping for a brief period
- Preparing or delivering a meal or two during recovery or downtime
- Providing a ride to church or a doctor's appointment
- Minor household repairs
- Running a small errand in the local area

If you would like to be added to our contact list to be notified when such needs arise—or if you know a trustworthy and affordable person we could recommend for these kinds of tasks—please let us know.

Your willingness to help, even in small ways, makes a big difference and strengthens our community of care.

Many reviews have praised the show's impressive acrobatics, puppetry and staging, calling it a must see for fans of the circus. The New York Times says, "Many wonders await audiences and the novel comes to thrilling, dazzling life." Eating in Cleveland before the show!

Rock the Vote! There was a time when American Women couldn't do that, not until suffragists got the Nineteenth Amendment passed in 1920.

The 2024 Tony Winner for Best Book of a Musical and Best Original Score!

A century ago Suffragette women of the United States were in an ongoing battle for the right to vote. 100 years later, SUFFS, directed by Leigh Silverman and written by the most exciting new voice in theater, Shaina Taub, transfers to Broadway after an extended run at the Public, to delight audiences with its fascinating look at these unsung trailblazers. You're invited along for the same ride they took all those years ago, so grab your placard and get ready to fight for what's right.

It's early 1910 and a group of Suffragists have taken to the street ready to transform the country and protests against the likes of the public, the president and even each other. Their names? The SUFFS! This captivating story will take you on the journey of women working against the divides—racial, generational and class—with both victories and failures right up until the Nineteenth Amendment in 1920.

It's a fight that is still far from over.

In 1920, after women gained the right to vote, the presence of women in Congress gradually increased and was especially noticeable by 1981. They have brought attention to gender—sensitive topics, children's rights and gender equality.

TOLEDO ART MUSEUM GLASS PAVILLION & Radiance and Reverie

When: Friday, Jan. 16, 2026
Depart: 9:30 AM
Return: 5:00 PM
Cost: $61.00 (meal included)

This special exhibit is a must see! We will start our day with a full lunch at the Spaghetti Warehouse.

You will need to pick your meal at sign up.

- 1 ~ Spaghetti & Meatballs
- 2 ~ 15 Layer Lasagna
- 3 ~ Fettuccini Alfredo
- 4 ~ Grilled Chicken Caesar Salad
- 5 ~ Four Cheese Manicotti

Your meal includes a fresh garden salad, freshly baked sourdough bread, soft drink or iced tea.

The Pavillion will be presenting a glass blowing demo and then we will go into the exhibit.

Step into a world of brilliance and beauty with Radiance and Reverie, a dazzling exhibition featuring more than 150 extraordinary jewels from the private collection of famed jewelry designer Neil Lane. Best known for his presence on the red carpet and ABC's The Bachelor, Lane has spent decades amassing one of the most important historic jewelry collections in the United States. Now, for the first time, this remarkable collection comes to light in an exhibition that celebrates jewelry as both art and cultural artifact.

Spanning nearly a century of design—from the opulence of nineteenth-century revival styles to the elegance of Hollywood's golden age—Radiance and Reverie invites visitors to see jewelry in a new light: not only as adornment, but as miniature sculptures that reflect shifting tastes, social change, and artistic innovation. Featuring iconic names such as Suzanne Belperron, Cartier, Boucheron, Castellani, Louis C. Tiffany, and Tiffany & Co., the exhibition reveals the story of modern jewelry through three distinct chapters:

- Paris: The World Stage showcases revival styles that captured imaginations at nineteenth-century world's fairs.
- New York: An American Jewelry House focuses on the legacy of Tiffany & Co. and Louis C. Tiffany and the rise of American design.
- Hollywood: Glamour traces the star-studded journey of jewels worn by legends like Mae West and Joan Crawford and revived on today's red carpets.

Historic photographs, period costume, and red-carpet footage complement the jewelry on view, offering a richly immersive experience.
